MEET LENNY!

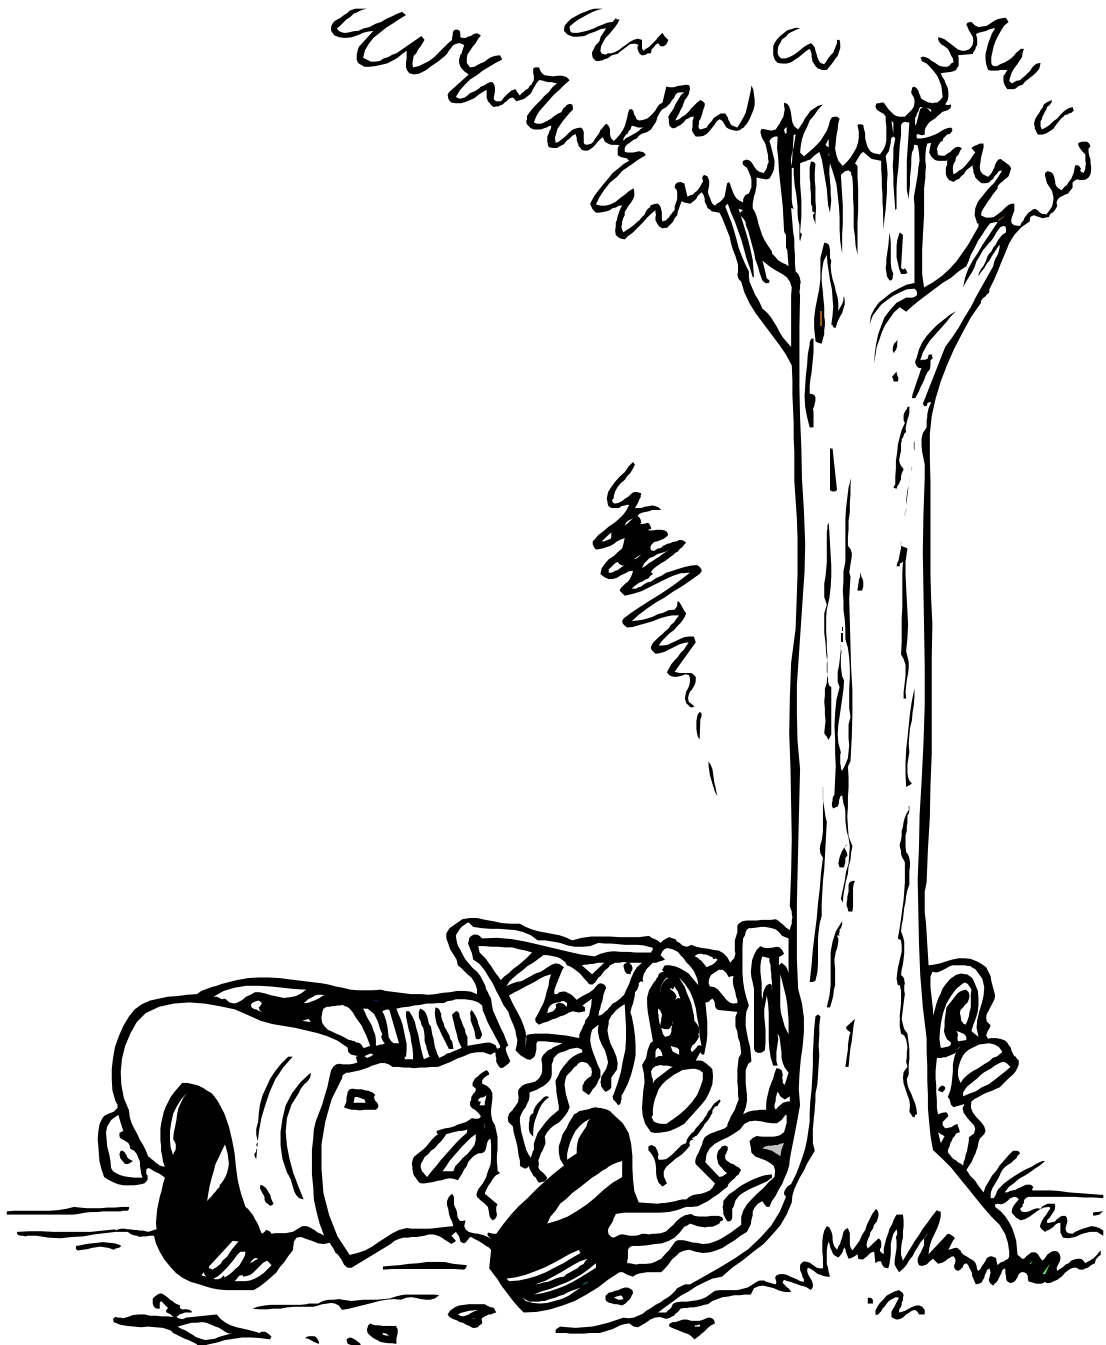

Lenny is Matt Denn's dog. Lenny is a kind of dog called a pug. Matt Denn is the insurance commissioner for Delaware. He helps people with their insurance.

So what is insurance? Insurance is what you buy so that if something of yours gets broken, you can fix it. If something of yours is lost, insurance will help you get a new one. And if you get sick, insurance will help you get better.

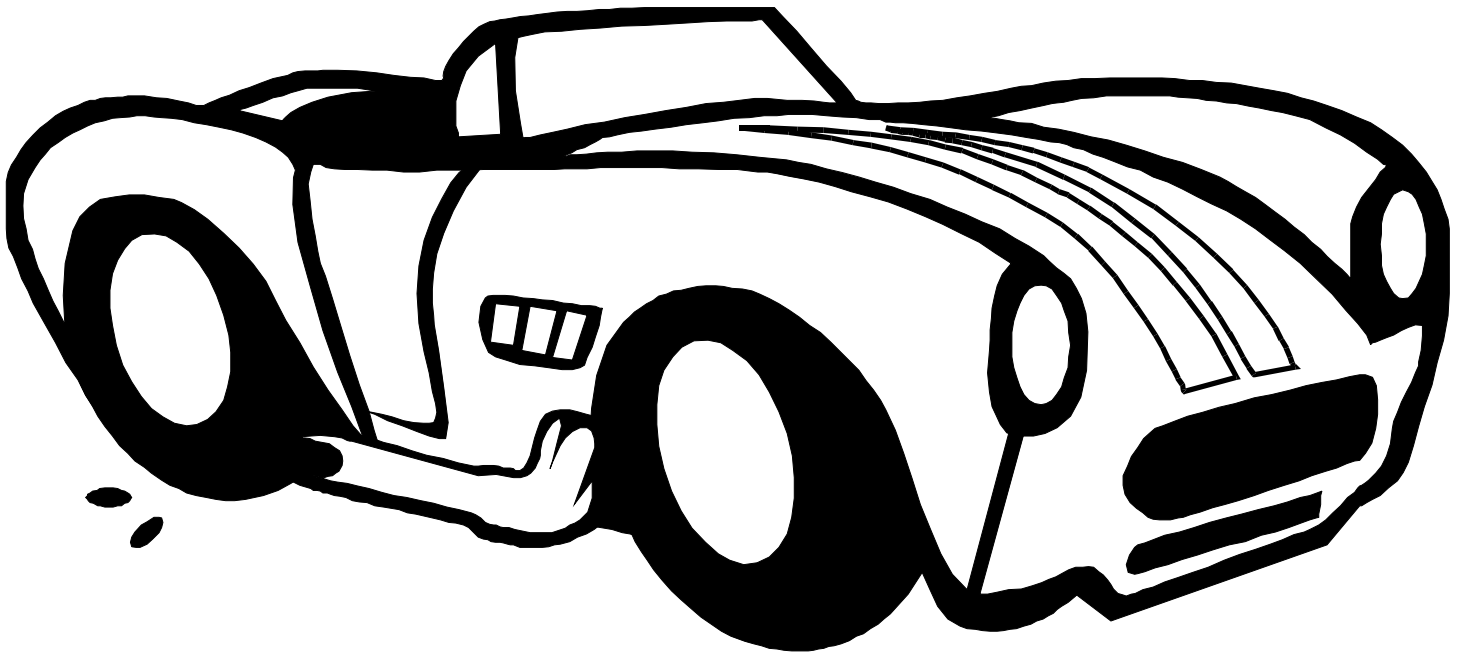

Lenny will help us understand...
